Sorry for the delay in getting back to you, but I've been in Brighton all week. There is a slot available at Energy Choices in the afternoon session on international developments. The final programme is about to go to print. Who shall I put down as the speaker?

Best regards

Keith

If there was any chance for a slot for PBMR at the En Choices conf in Dec as a taster pre the event Keith is teeing up with PBMR we would be very grateful but understand if agenda is already fixed. Alec Erwin has a keynote slot at ToNux in March. Some of the NIA membership will be pretty interested in PBMR if [REDACTED]'s reaction is anything to go by.

Best regs-Sue
