Hi Jenny

I was about to make copies of Richard's presentation and I've noticed that the front page has 'page 2' written on it.

Do you want to quickly change that and resend it to me before I copy it?

Miranda

I missed Richard's updates on the previous pdf so this is really the final version! Unfortunately there were problems getting two slides to a page (some mysterious line kept appearing) so only on eslide to a page.

Apologies if this causes any problems.

This is the latest version of Richard's slides - I've just included the slides intended for the handouts and omitted the back-up slides. If Richard makes any more changes I'll send you an updated file.

Jenny
